Mr. Burleigh, Yours of April recd. I hope you will kindly excuse my neglect. You will notice we spell our name Burley. I believe our fore fathers are the same.
I inquired of my father and our branch also come from Ernestown. My father's name is Benjamin and my grand father Joseph.
The latter was a carpenter by trade. In our family there are few if any early deaths Grandfather was near a hundred at time of his death. my father was born in Mubny Township near Trenton. I believe. and come to Pa Ed. Co. when I was born thirty four years ago. There are no Catholics in our family that we know of.

My life has all been spent in this county. I own one of eight children all living.
I have met many people bearing our name, and all earlier part of their family also come from Crumstown.
So it looks as tho we are all from the same family.
I hope this may enlighten you of the information you seek. I am

Dear Mr Burleigh, yours recd. some time ago. I have been to see my father and we had a long talk. This Joseph who came from U.S. with John and Freemont. had a son Samuel who married a Nancy Bennett Joseph my grandfather was their eldest son. Father remembers these uncles John Freemont and George these would be brothers to my grandfather.
My grandfather married Anna Slenders and there is a very large family all of whom I can get in touch with my father is the eldest. We have no records to prove this but from the in

Deaths and Funerals

MISS GRACE LANDON

Grace Landon, 75 King street Gananoque, died suddenly on August 23 in Hotel Dieu Hospital, Kingston in her 67th year.

Miss Landon was born at Jay Lea. She moved to Newboro at an early age. She attended Newboro and Athens High School. She had been a registered nurse and was assistant supervisor of the General Hospital, Utica N.Y. for many years, from which hospital she had received her nurse's diploma.

She was a daughter of the late Frederick and Sarah Landon, was a regular attendant at Christ Church Gananoque, a member of the Women's Auxiliary and assistant in the Little Helpers.

Surviving are her brother Edward Landon Newboro; and a sister Mrs. William Bryans (Catharine) of Toronto.

Funeral was held on August 25 to Christ Church Gananoque. Arch-deacon N. R. Stout was assisted by Rev. R. M. McGarden of Saginaw, Mich.

Pall-bearers were three nephews, Harold, Norman and Bruce Landon, all of Kingston, and Frederick Bryans.

Interment was in the family plot in Lansdowne Cemetery.

MRS. HAROLD D. WILSON

MALLORYTOWN — Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. Harold D. Wilson, of Fernie, B.C. She was the former Helen Gibson, of Mallorytown, a daughter of the late George Gibson and his wife, Elizabeth Field. Mrs. Wilson died suddenly of a heart attack. Besides her husband, she is survived by four sons and three grandchildren, all in British Columbia. Burial was in Fernie. Clifford Gibson, Mallorytown, is a first cousin.

JAMES A. ASPINALL

Employed as the electrical foreman at Ontario Hospital, Kingston, until his retirement a year ago, James A. Aspinall died suddenly at Hotel Dieu Hospital on Friday, August 28.

Born in Lanchester, England, the son of Edmund and Elizabeth Prumbleholme Aspinall, he came to reside in the Kingston area 10 years ago. Before that he had lived in Magog, Que. He was a member of Cataraqui Lodge 92, A.F. and A.M.

He is survived by his wife, the former Hannah Ramber; two daughters, Dorothy and Mrs. D. Hannah, (Peggy), of Kingston; a son, James, Sorel, Que.; one brother, Archer E., of Bolton, England.

The funeral service, Monday, August 31, was conducted by Canon Minto Swan, of St. John's (Anglican) Church. Interment was at Parham. Pallbearers were D. Folger, N. Forsythe, D. Grainger, W. A. Sheppard, S. Harrison and S. Van Horne.

OSCAR E. BAUDER

Oscar Earl Bauder, stationary engineer, died in Hotel Dieu Hospital, Thursday, August 27, at the age of 67. He resided at 26 MacCauley street, and had lived 12 years in Kingston.

Born in Verona, he attended the Free Methodist church. He was a son of George Bauder and Elizabeth Peters. Surviving are his wife, Mabel Martin; three sisters, Mrs. Bertha Freeman and Mrs. John Deyo (Lottie), of Verona and Mrs. Nelson Albertson, (Blanche.)

The funeral was held at the Free Methodist Church, August 29, with interment at Verona.

Dear sir, I have heard of your book written in regard to the family history of United Empire Loyalists As a small girl my teacher asked me to ask my parents if I was a decendent of the U. E. L. and learned that I was. My father's name was Richard Bauder and his mother's name was Charlotte Burleigh & Dad was born & died in Verona area. I was wondering where I could obtain one of your books and the price. Sincerely

Dear sir, I have heard of your book
written in regard to the family
history of United Empire Loyalists.
I am a small girl my teacher asked me to ask my parents if I was a descendant of the U. E. L. and learned that I was. My father's name was Richard Bauder and his mother's name was Charlotte Burleigh &
Dad was born & died in Verona Iowa. I was wondering where I could obtain one of your books and the
price. Sincerely

Mrs Charles (Eleanor) Thielen
